

Do not change the current limits on the number of stations allowed to be owned. This access and these broadcast rights are the property of the citizens of the U.S. We need to ensure that access is available to all and that our networks are not controlled by a small number of companies.